DIARY NOTES

25X1A

DD/S

[REDACTED] JH2

11 December 1962

1. Matt Baird requested guidance on General Carter's intentions with regard to participation in the training program. I told Matt I felt sure that what General Carter wanted accomplished was to make sure we penetrated the Defense Intelligence Agency in some way so that we would know what was going on. We agreed that we should explore with DIA the possibility of the assignment of a CIA instructor to the DIA Training Staff.

2. [REDACTED] telephoned to report that the boundary fence, through which Mrs. Robert Kennedy has been entering our property to ride horseback, has been repaired.

3. [REDACTED] reported that he has worked out an arrangement satisfactory to both OCR and OTR which will give OTR the additional space they wanted in Arlington Towers. The Acquisitions Branch of OCR will move back to R&S Building, which they would prefer to Arlington Towers; OTR will take over the space vacated by OCR.

4. Emmett Echols spoke to me about the possibility of asking [REDACTED] 25X1A9a of OTR to serve as the focal point as requests are received for speakers at universities, etc., in connection with our recruitment program. I told him that I thought this sounded like a good idea and he should go ahead and explore it.

5. In a conference call with [REDACTED] we arranged 25X1A9a to have Marty order for the Director four sets of the Great Books of the Western World to be delivered to the [REDACTED] residence in Seattle, Washington, not later than 20 December at a cost of approximately $398 per set. (later changed to $298)

6. Emmett Echols was in to see me regarding the following:

a. He explored with me the possibility of finding some way to pay separation compensation to [REDACTED] who was a 701 case.

General Carter upheld her appeal but she later resigned. Sometime after her resignation she attempted suicide. (It is a real problem since General Counsel sees no way we can pay separation compensation legally.) I told Emmett that I thought it would be better to let it ride.

b. He talked to me about the possibility of hiring [REDACTED] brother-in-law as a recruiter in [REDACTED] him that I had no objection to this provided they gave him a reserve appointment, kept very close tabs on his work, and got rid of him if he didn't produce.

7. Shef Edwards and [REDACTED] were in to talk with me about some questionable security practices involving one of our employees at the covert training site. I asked [REDACTED] to undertake a very discreet investigation through command channels without disclosing to the individual that he was being checked and then to report back to Colonel Edwards and me. We will have to decide at that time whether there is any substance to the implied charges against this individual and whether the investigation should be turned over to the Office of Security for appropriate action.
